NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

-President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation has created much excitement at the Rebel capital. It is intemperately denounced as contrary to the usages mond papers and the first day's debate on the subject in Congress, the Rebels contemplate the raising of Kidd, and the indiscriminate slaughter of men, woare just as mad as when they first heard of General Pope's subsistence orders; then they would hang -The Forrest Divorce Case will be reached in the people turning out most liberally, in spite of the raining arms against the Government. Mr. Semmes of Louisiana was more cautious—he was the author of the resolution—retaliation was the business of the Executive. Mr. Henry of Tennesseefavored a black flag and extermination of invaders. Mr. Phelan of Mississippi had always been in favor of the black flag. Mr. Yancey wanted the matter to go to a Special Committee, but it was finally sent to the Judiciary Committee, but it was finally sent to the Judiciary Committee. There was a report at Fortress Monroe on Thursday, probably premature, that a black flag bill had passed the Rebel Congress.
